EULOGIES AND REMEMBRANCES

Eulogies and remembrances are beautiful and meaningful ways for family members, close friends and associates to express their grief and to recall the many gifts, talents and virtues of the person who died.

These testimonies are best offered at the wake service, the internment, or at a reception following the funeral liturgy. They are particularly meaningful at a reception where spontaneous remarks from loved ones can be offered.

Because these memorials are not a formal part of the liturgical celebration, we do not include eulogies or remembrances during the Mass of Christian Burial.

Un Llamado Renovado a una Cultura de la Vida en el Trágico Aniversario de Roe V. Wade: Una Declaración de los Obispos Católicos de Florida

22 de enero de 2020

Día de Oración por la Protección Legal de los Niños No Nacidos

El 22 de enero de 2020 marca un triste aniversario: la trágica decisión de la Corte Suprema de los Estados Unidos para legalizar la toma deliberada de la vida humana por nacer mediante el aborto electivo. La sanción judicial para terminar la vida en el útero, vista por algunos como un “bien”, es un “mal” que durante 47 años ha endurecido los corazones y turbado las mentes. En la actualidad, después de más de 60 millones de abortos, hay menos consideración por toda la vida humana, ya que la sociedad descarta a quienes considera inconvenientes por edad, enfermedad o cualquier otra razón.

El año pasado, en uno de los entornos políticos más polarizados experimentados en la historia reciente, nos horrorizó que algunos estados trataran de reforzar las leyes que permiten los abortos hasta el momento del nacimiento. También vimos cómo el Congreso de los Estados Unidos fracasó repetidamente en considerar protecciones para garantizar que los bebés que sobrevivan al aborto reciban atención médica adecuada.

Sin embargo, en medio de esta oscuridad quedan signos de esperanza, y las acciones buenas y valientes iluminan el camino a seguir. La aprobación de leyes por parte de varias legislaturas estatales para restringir el aborto es alentadora. En Florida ha recibido buena acogida el amplio apoyo para la ayuda vital que brindan los centros de atención del embarazo a las mujeres embarazadas y sus familias. Los apostolados parroquiales y otros que ofrecen ayuda material y espiritual, además de esperanza y sanación para quienes sufren como consecuencia de pasados abortos, nos animan y deben ser elogiados.

La interpretación predominante de la cláusula de privacidad en nuestra constitución de Florida, que ha otorgado derechos más amplios al aborto que la Constitución de los EE.UU., es frustrante. Sin embargo, tenemos la esperanza de que la legislación que requiere un período de reflexión de 24 horas antes de un aborto sobreviva finalmente los desafíos judiciales y se defienda como ley.

A pesar de las afirmaciones de algunos de que Roe v. Wade es “jurisprudencia reiterada”, los estadounidenses todavía están en conflicto sobre el aborto, y esto es lo que subyace en gran parte de la división sobre el discurso político actual. Como católicos, no pretendemos imponer nuestros puntos de vista sobre la vida humana en la ciudadanía de esta gran nación. Sin embargo, como estadounidenses y ciudadanos fieles y llenos de fe, deseamos contribuir con el bien común y la promoción de la prosperidad humana en nuestra sociedad al presentar nuestra proposición. La propuesta del Dr. Martin Luther King sobre la necesidad de justicia racial conmovió la conciencia de una nación y marcó el fin de Jim Crow. Del mismo modo, nuestra propuesta, apoyada en las enseñanzas católicas pero accesible a la razón, espera llegar a las conciencias y poner fin a la “matanza de los inocentes” de los Estados Unidos.

Esta propuesta sostiene que la dignidad humana de todos se beneficia cuando cada vida humana está protegida por la ley desde el momento de la concepción hasta la muerte natural. El respeto por el derecho a la vida y la dignidad de toda persona humana —ya sea pobre, inmigrante, refugiada, encarcelada, enferma, anciana o no nacida— simplemente reafirma la verdad evidente de que “todos los hombres han sido creados iguales” y “dotados por su Creador de ciertos derechos inalienables”. De esta manera se fomenta la “unión más perfecta” a la que aspiraban nuestros fundadores.
